Welcome to New York City!

ABOUT NEW YORK CITY

Some may not agree with the oft-touted claim that New York City is the "capital of the world," but as the largest city in the United States, New York is the business, entertainment and publishing capital of America. From the Grammy Awards to the US Open, New York City plays host to a diverse range of exciting international events. Recognized around the world for its unique skyline, its performing arts companies, and its preeminent position in finance, fashion, art, publishing, broadcasting, theater, and advertising, boasting more than 150 world-class museums, 18,000 restaurants, 37 Broadway theaters and unsurpassed shopping opportunities, the "city that never sleeps" truly has something for everyone. A theater buff may be content to spend days without leaving the vicinity of the revitalized Times Square, the more historic minded may be equally swept away by the impressive architecture of old buildings in lower Manhattan, and art lovers will want to spend their time exploring the uptown and downtown museums and galleries. Another integral aspect of New York, is the ever-changing landscape of restaurants and shops, with the approximately 8 million characters, many of them walking the streets, which give the city its remarkable vitality, an indefinable aura that exists nowhere else in the world!

Shackman Associates New York welcomes you to "be a part of it....."

DAY ONE

BIG APPLE WELCOME

Upon arrival at a New York airport, our guests are met by local SANY staff carrying logo'd identification signs. SANY staff will assist guests with their baggage and escort them to the waiting transportation for a swift transfer to their New York hotel.

Visitors often remark on the unbelievable BUZZ that they feel when in New York. There is a palpable energy that flows through the city that makes it one of a kind. Tonight, your guests will get to experience this energy first hand during their welcome dinner.

Evening

Deluxe escorted vehicles will take our guests to the renowned Grand Central Terminal for their welcome dinner at Metrazur.

After a five-year restoration, Grand Central Terminal has established itself as the most exciting destination in Manhattan. This revival included the creation of Metrazur, an elegant restaurant located on the East Balcony overlooking the Main Concourse. The design is sleek but spare, wisely allowing the Beaux Arts-style building, with its starry ceiling and ornate chandeliers, to take center stage. At this new American Brasserie, Chef Charlie Palmer has created a menu featuring American dishes with Mediterranean and Asian undertones.

As a complement to the evening (depending on the size of the group) Miss Liberty, the ultimate New York icon, will be on hand to greet guests – no one will believe she is real until she moves! She is a fun and interactive character who will provide a wonderful photo opportunity for guests and a great souvenir for the first night.

DAY TWO

NEW YORK – BY LAND, SEA AND AIR

This morning, guests will enjoy New York from a variety of different perspectives.

We start at the hotel where our motorcoach takes us on the short ride to the heliport. Here guests enjoy a breathtaking helicopter ride above the city which brings them into “almost touching” distance of the majestic skyscrapers which create the unique skyline. Then, it’s a short tour through the busy streets of midtown Manhattan en route to Central Park.

At the outskirts of the Park, a fleet of horse-drawn carriages await to transport our guests through the “green oasis” of New York. After a relaxing carriage ride, under SANY direction, guests board the subway for their trip downtown – just like real New Yorkers. Guests emerge in lower Manhattan for a short walking tour of the area. The tour ends with a ferry ride around Manhattan, followed by a delicious lunch in a picturesque restaurant.

Evening

A NIGHT ON THE GREAT WHITE WAY

A true New York evening is in the cards for tonight - a night on Broadway! Guests will enjoy a pre-theatre dinner at one of the many legendary New York City restaurants. Following dinner, our guests will be escorted to the show of choice for a night under the lights! No trip to New York is complete without a stop on Broadway!

As an additional surprise, with special arrangements, guests may enjoy a post-theatre dessert reception nearby where they meet and mingle with several of the performers from the Broadway show. A great way to collect further photos and autographs.

DAY THREE

THE ULTIMATE SEX + THE CITY EXPERIENCE

(...from a culinary and shopping perspective)

This morning, our guests enjoy the inside scoop on “Sex and the City”. Let’s conquer New York City – just the way our fair ladies do! Drink a cosmopolitan at Steve and Aidan’s bar and visit the shops at the center of Carrie’s shoe fetish! Plenty of photo opportunities abound!

There is nothing like shopping in New York. NYC is home to the fashion industry and a shopper’s paradise. You can find unique designer boutiques, high-end designer shops, street vendors selling the latest trends, or knock-off handbags in Chinatown. There is something for everyone.

Guests will enjoy an afternoon of leisure and in style. Perhaps they will stroll the streets on their own or be escorted by one of our very own New York shopping experts who will provide insights to the various neighborhoods and “in the know” hot shopping tips.

Evening

AN EVENING OF DELIGHTS & LIGHTS

For their final night in New York, stretch hummers transport our guests to a pier on the Hudson River where they board the deluxe glass enclosed yacht for a sumptuous dinner cruise. Tonight, it is a feast for the eyes and the palate. The excellent cuisine aboard is complemented by the shimmering skyline of New York. And yes, yet another photo opportunity presents itself as the yacht makes a stop in front of the real Statue of Liberty. Unquestionably, a lush banquet of sights and sounds, exquisite tastes and extraordinary surroundings and a wonderful way to end a trip to New York.

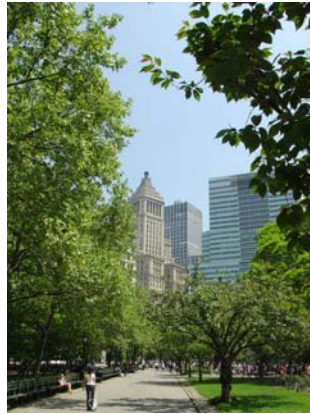

DAY FOUR

FAREWELL NEW YORK

On the morning of departures guests may enjoy a morning of leisure for last minute shopping before returning to the hotel to check-out. The SANY staff will be on hand to assist with baggage and boarding the vehicles for the transfer to the airport. And so our guests depart wishing New York a fond farewell!

BON VOYAGE!
